Defendant Clarence Tomlin has been on supervised release since June 3, 2008. Since that time, he has been under the supervision of the Pretrial Services Office. One of the conditions of his supervision is that he participate in random drug testing, which requires that he call-in for drug testing every day and randomly submit to drug testing. Mr. Tomlin has regularly made those calls, and regularly attended his drug testing. All of his drug tests have been negative. Additionally, there is no indication that Mr. Tomlin has any history of substance abuse.

The parties jointly stipulate and request that the condition of pretrial supervision requiring drug testing be held in abeyance, and that Mr. Tomlin be required to submit to drug testing at the discretion of the pretrial services officer.

1 Mr. Tomlin's Pretrial Services Officer, Rich Sarlatte, has no objection to this
2 modification of the conditions of pretrial release.
